Tune: Auld Lang Syne

Dear Charles Brown High, we'll ne'er forget
We pledge our love to thee,
The Green and white, we'll ne'er neglect
Through all eternity.

CHORUS

To honor Charles Brown High schoolmates
To honor Charles Brown High,
We'll always be devoted to
Our dear ole Charles Brown High.

Through all the years we've loved thee best
Our faith in thee remains,
To you we owe our happiness
We'll return to you again.

The Editor

This year the staff has put forth every effort to produce for subscribers a bigger and better yearbook. We have tried to recapitulate your daily activities at Charles Brown High School.

We urge you to make use of every available opportunity so that you will be able to compete successfully in a competitive society. By obtaining an education one will become better equipped to compete in this society.

We are grateful to the administration, faculty and student body for their loyal support in helping us to produce - The Tiger of 1960.

Editor-in-Chief,

This Annual to —*

PANSY FAYE SULLIVAN

Pansy Faye Sullivan became the broken link in the senior chain when she expired on Thursday morning, October 1, 1959 at 11:30 A.M. Our hearts are no longer saddened when we think of the inspiration which was given to many of us by her luminous personality and how she willingly gave her time to help those of us who needed it. In recognition of Pansy Faye's many services to those about her, we feel that she had a reputation worthy of this tribute.

Principal's Message

It is a pleasure to greet you again and congratulate you, the annual staff and others, for the publication of this our third yearbook. I am sure this has been an experience of hard work as well as a feeling of pride for a job well done.

Since our last publication, we have witnessed many improvements in both the physical plant and scholastic work. The story is very well told in this volume.

In the midst of the many problems facing society today the school will not loose faith in our youths.

From the opportunities and experiences you are sharing, I hope you are getting a better understanding of yourself and others; a better understanding of the world present and past; acquiring knowledge and skills necessary to make a living; finding greater happiness in just living; and developing interest in work done by scientists, writers, artists, explorers, and philosophers as they try to unfold the riddles of the world in a thrilling and challenging way. They often succeed against great handicaps.

Catherall says, "The three foundations of learning: Seeing much, suffering much and studying much." Build well your foundation.

A black and white photograph of a Dutch windmill with a globe in the foreground. The windmill is a traditional wooden structure with four lattice-patterned sails. It is situated on a sandy area, possibly a beach or a dune. In the foreground, a globe on a stand is positioned to the right of the windmill. The globe shows a map of the world. The windmill has a balcony-like structure around its base. The sky is cloudy, and there are trees in the background and foreground. The word "SENIORS" is written in a stylized font across the middle of the image.

A black and white photograph of a tropical beach scene. In the foreground, a globe on a stand is positioned on the right side, partially obscuring the view. The globe shows a map of the world. Behind the globe, a beach is visible with several people and a striped beach umbrella. In the background, a large, rugged mountain range stretches across the horizon under a clear sky. The top of the image is framed by the fronds of a palm tree.

A black and white photograph featuring a traditional East Asian building with a curved roof and a globe on a stand in the foreground. The globe is positioned in the lower right corner, resting on a dark, tiered base. The building's roof is dark and has a prominent curve, with a row of small, light-colored decorative elements along the eaves. Pine branches are visible at the top of the frame, framing the scene. A white horizontal band is overlaid across the middle of the image, containing the word "ATHLETICS" in a serif font.

Tune: Original

Dear Charles Brown High School
Aims for the "Golden Rule."

This keeps our school in line,
Always on time.

We'll never stray,
But always pray

That our school will go
Onward day by day.

CHORUS

Our school adores
Its green and white.

This means to us
That we are right.

With Brown High spirit,
We'll always stand the test

Whether we are far away or near.
