DEDICATION

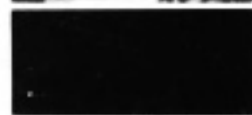

... The world will little note nor long remember what we say here,

But it can never forget what they did here.

It is for us, the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work for which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced.

It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us -

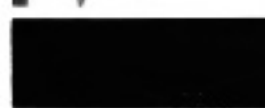

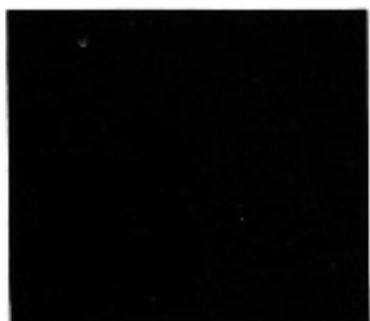

That from these honored dead we take increased devotion
To that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion; ...

LINCOLN HIGH PRESENTS SOUL '69 FOREWORD

In this day and age the word "Soul" has come alive. People everywhere try to define it, visualize it, possess it, reproduce it. We here at Lincoln High School feel that we are full of "Soul." We have a school bursting out all over with "Soul." When did it all begin?

It began
With the first ray of light,
It grew, spread, swelled,
An indomitable spiral
Up and out and through;
And Lincoln High
On its journey through
Finds itself with but three tools -
Its personnel
Dedicated to "Educational Excellence,"
Its students
Plodding the seemingly endless paths
Of those who have gone on;
Its Soul
That deep inner abstract quality
That gives life to the lifeless;
That makes the meek intrepid;
That gives the hopeless hope.

Behind Lincoln High it lies,
A magnificent reservoir,
Of knowledge -
Its "Soul" administrators, counselors
Librarians, secretaries
Bursting with "Super Soul"
And know-how;

Its "Soul" teachers, trained, competent
Professional, understanding,
And qualified;

Its "Soul" dietary staff, gourmets,
Trained in the preparation of
Soul Food;

Its "Soul" custodians, cleanliness conscious
Cleaning, trimming, painting
Providing that Soulful look,

Its "Soul" student body
Wearing the "Natural" look
Providing atmosphere, winning games
Absorbing from the learned
That which it takes to survive,

And so it is
That we return
Always
To the beginning,
To the light
And the promise of eternal experience
By which man finds his way
To that Soulful beginning
That first ray of light
That indomitable spiral,
And to our posterity we leave
A better way of life, another Soulful experience.

MESSAGE

Lincoln High School is many things to many people. Those of us who are in daily contact and center our lives around it feel that it is something good for the entire community. It is a place where one can place his pride.

Recently, Lincoln was accredited by the Southern Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges. This is another step forward in our master plan. We have always excelled athletically and this step now places us in the position of leadership academically.

As we begin our pictorial record of the year, let us consider this a history or a re-living of the past, a living of the present, and a projection into the future.

Let us all greet the Trojan '69 with renewed pride and with the true Lincoln Spirit.

Not the controversial "Black Power;" nor any form of extremism; but the realization that the characteristics of the black man are distinct and handsome; that Black is Beautiful; that the black culture is a real one, alive, pulsating, and in its exigency, ready to burst open and spread its essence throughout the world to Everyman; and that the "soul" of the black man now speaks, are what we bring to you in this our Trojan 1969 Yearbook "Soul '69."

The staff of this Lincoln High School annual has worked untiringly to present the core of our activities to you; the gaining of knowledge, and the participation in those "core" curriculars.

The fusion of minds and personalities and the efforts of black people working together have resulted in "Soul '69."

KYLE MARK GREEN
Editor

In our annual "Soul '69" we have tried to convey the feeling of "Black Pride" which, until recently, has lain dormant in an abstract form in the hearts of black men in this country. Now the black man has educated himself and removed the impression that his color is an obstacle to his being a man and that he should be ashamed of it. Today a black man will readily acknowledge the fact that he is black and that he is a man like any other man.

"Soul '69" is a pictorial expression of our feeling of "black pride" and it is an account of how we at Lincoln High School try to do our part in re-shaping the image of all black men into one of dignity and respect. In essence, we are merely showing three things: "We're Trojans; we're Black; and we're Proud."

THE AFRO-AMERICAN STYLE SHOW

SITE OF THE SOULFUL JR.-SR. PROM (1969) OAKWOOD SHOPPING CENTER

Graceful palms and rare tropical plants decorate the gardens of Oakwood Shopping Center, in the area's first covered year round air-conditioned mall. Skylights provide glareless natural light by day, through a unique arrangement of translucent and transparent panels. All Oakwood Stores have their store fronts on the covered mall. With elaborate decorations and colorful spotlights, the students of Lincoln High School enjoyed their 1969 Prom in this fabulous emporium.
