"Old men shall dream dreams and young men shall see visions and when there is no vision, the people shall perish."

Throughout our years of learning, we have been furnished with the opportunities and the experiences to help us create an insight into beauty, reality, and Christian living. With this vision, we will see things, as it were, with the eyes of God and become aware of our responsibilities to Him and our fellowman. In the following pages of Xavierian, we wish to present to you the way in which our years at the Prep have afforded us the chance to begin this development. If we continue this course successfully, we will be able to pursue our goals with efficiency and ease, and eventually arrive at a perfect vision which will ultimately lead us to the Divine Vision--Christ.

"His virtues were his arts"

With the historic appointment in September, 1965, Pope Paul VI made Rev. Harold R. Perry an Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of New Orleans and the first Negro bishop of the 20th century. Bishop Perry is a man of deep piety, sincere humility, and wide experiences, but he is more than this to us--he is a true friend. Therefore, Most Reverend Auxiliary Bishop Harold R. Perry, we, the Class of '66, wish to dedicate our yearbook, the Xavierian, to you and salute you as

OUR MAN OF VISION,

Bishop Perry exercises his newly received powers at the ordination ceremony at the Divine Word Seminary, Bay Saint Louis on January 9, 1966.

'To be is to live with God.'

Emerson

Our learning is deep because God is in it. We hear His name throughout the day in the precision of mathematics, the mystery of science, the human experiences of the languages and social sciences, the beauty of art, and the glory of music. We also meet Him in each teacher and fellow student who shares with us the experiences and activities which make up our school day.

Peggy Jane Collins and Artis Turner are happy in the satisfaction of having mastered Spanish. Now they go forth to use what they have learned in a life of service.

Cultural cognizance is stimulated as the Christmas feast, Las Posadas de la Navidad, is performed by Spanish students: George De Grange, Charles Barzon, Earl Williams, Aloysius Wilson, Charles Grant, Harold Rich, Thomas Johnson, Joseph Albright, Joseph Davis, Simone Marine, Sharon Gex, Cheryl Miller, Stefanie Smith, Wendolyn Eugene, Joycelyn Cobette, Lynell Smith, Leslie Berzat, Errol Smith.

*"Every language is a temple in which the soul of those who speak it is enshrined."

The language teachers discuss better means to develop our lingual skills and through this knowledge lead us to better understand our brothers of all nations.

Sister M. Chrysostom, our principal, has taken over her new duty with zeal and dedication. As anyone can see Sister is the most versatile person at the Prep. Sister M. Chrysostom is not only a person of many talents, but also a heart and soul worker. The graduates of '66 wish to give a personal thank you to the one who has shown us what the Prep really is and by her day by day assistance has led us to a deeper insight into our potential for good, both for time and eternity.

"Happiness is being with your friend."
Schulz

Mother Maria Concetta, Superior of Xavier Prep Convent, is no longer able to serve as principal of the Prep because of her numerous commitments. However, Mother is still working with the students showing interest in their various endeavors and accomplishments. The Class of '66 on behalf of the entire student body extends their gratitude to Mother for all her assistance during the time she spent with us as principal and friend.

ACTIVITIES

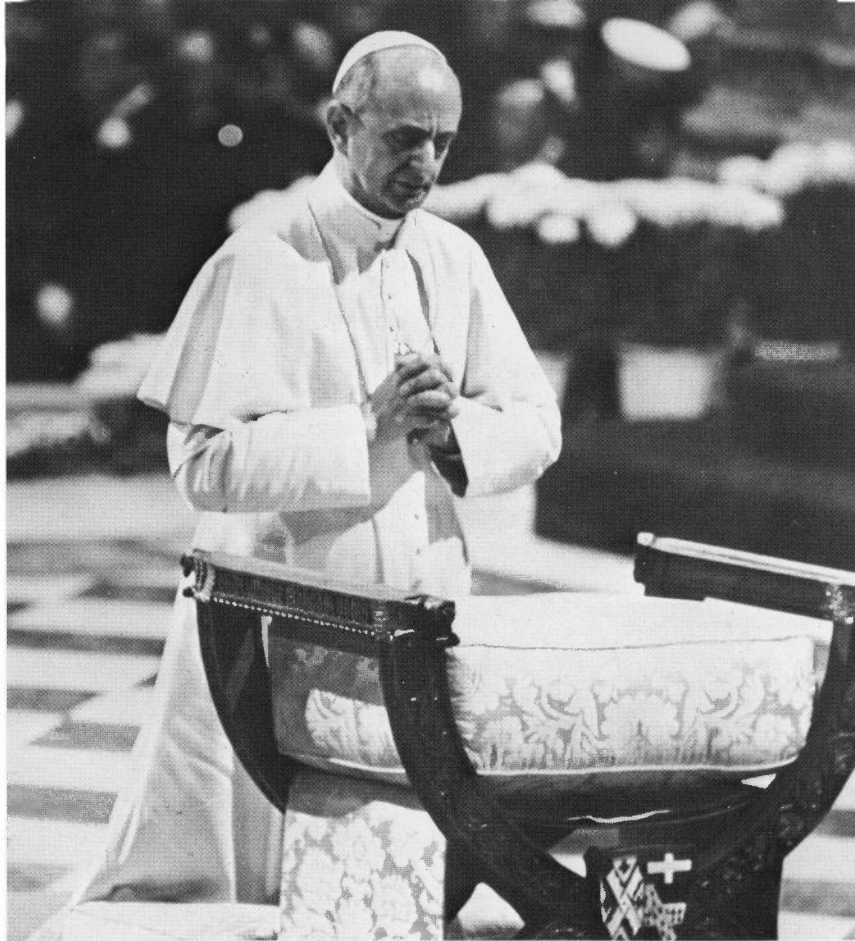

*"Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you."
St. John 14:27*

Our Holy Father offered the Holy Sacrifice for Peace and spoke to President Johnson about the ways of bringing peace among men.

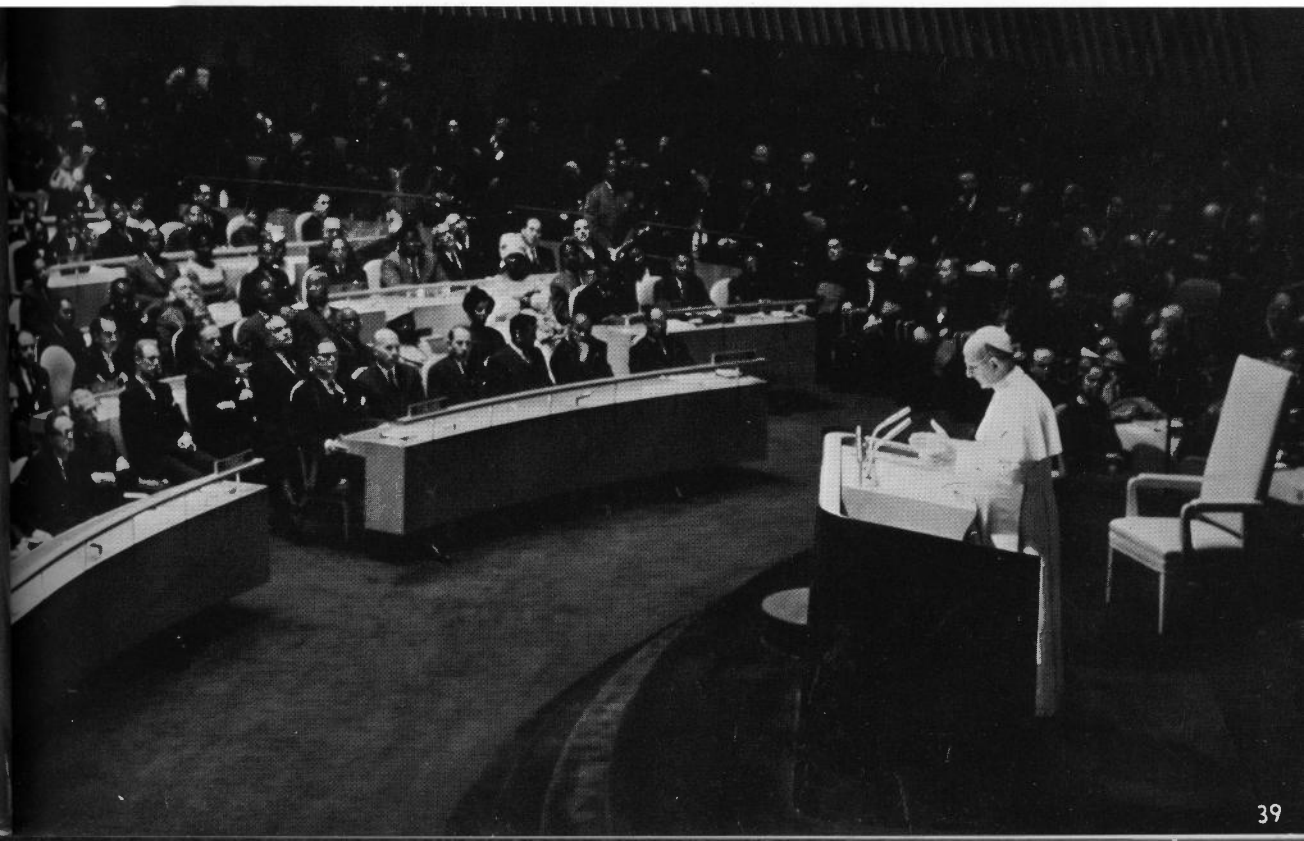

All activities and experiences in our daily life should lead to a better vision which is true Wisdom. Therefore one of the most important activities of our school year was the day we spent with our Holy Father Pope Paul VI on the occasion of his visit of peace to the United States.

Kneeling in St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York
Our Holy Father prays for peace among all men.

Our Holy Father spoke to all nations and begged their leaders to work for peace.

First Friday finds each of us more closely united as we offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass together and renew our dedication to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Father Brown prepares to offer our gift which Artis Turner received from Harold Rich and G. thea Morrell.

The Little Sisters of Jesus visited Xavier Prep on Feb. 2, and left us all with a greater knowledge of how to make our lives a life of prayer. Their pre-eminent work is to manifest the Love of Christ by prayer and friendship to those who are in most need of it. Carmen Austin and Sylvia Ferrouillet are happy to pose with Sister Clar-etta Sarah who is a graduate of Xavier University and Sister Jacqueline.

Our annual Retreat afforded each of us an opportunity and a deeper understanding of the role our religion plays in our lives. Joycelyn Theard, Gloria Williams, Jennifer Christopher, Steven Rochon and Lucien Chalot stop to chat with our Retreat Master, Rev. Father Gaydos, C.S.S.R.

Whether it be the arousing of active school spirit through assembly programs, or a lesson in citizenship through the campaigning and sponsoring of a "Mock Election" the Student Council is there to provide spirit and the needed momentum.
