We, the Seniors

of Xavier University Preparatory, in order to honor those who have been:

the most influential advocates of our graduation,
our omnipresent light through darkness,
our unfaltering guide through danger,
and
our illuminating inspiration for the future,

Administration

Our activities this year have been guided by two inspiring individuals. We were greeted in September by a new face, Sister Maria Pietro. Unfortunately, there was a pressing need for her services elsewhere, and after six weeks she had to leave. In this short time, however, she made a lasting impression on Xavier Prep. After her departure an old friend of ours took the reins - Mother Maria Concetta. She has successfully led us onward and upward through her untiring efforts to help us, through our education, make our world a better place in which to live.

Principal

Mother Maria Concetta

Dear Graduates,

To each of you I offer my sincere congratulations on your having successfully completed your course of studies at Xavier Prep.

It is our hope that all of you have derived from your years at Xavier Prep principles of living which will direct all your powers and skills in the light of your real end and purpose in life--to know, to love, and to serve God on earth and to be happy with Him in heaven. Through the development of your interests, aptitudes, and talents, you have been prepared for life as well as for living. Remember always to put first things first. You are a citizen of two worlds--belonging in this world--but having your first and highest allegiance to the kingdom of God.

God bless you always!

Devotedly in the Blessed Sacrament,

Mother Maria Concetta, Principal

Sr. Ruth Catherine and Sr. Margaret insure the continuous and smooth turning of the administrative wheels.

Counselor

Sr. Charles, who plays the role of counselor, guide, nurse, mother, and lawyer provides an important link of our success in the moral, physical, and social world.

Dietitian

The efforts of Sr. M. Rose of Lima help each student to keep an alert mind in a healthy body.

Mathematics and Science

Everyone recognizes that industry and business, in fact, modern living, require a large amount of skill and knowledge in basic mathematics and science. Xavier Prep offers four courses in each of these fields to interested and talented students. In increasing numbers students are striving to attain excellence in these vital areas of knowledge.

Social Studies

An understanding of the past provides us with the key to the future. With this thought in mind, the Social Studies Department provides courses in Civics, World History, Sociology, and Economics. A proper background in history equips the student with the materials to contribute to society and be an effective world citizen.

Chapter 3 THE BEGINNINGS OF THE UNITED STATES

The roots of American government reach deep into the past. Our system of government did not suddenly spring into being as at the wave of some political magician's wand. Nor was it pulled out of thin air by the

Our English Heritage. The French, Spanish, Dutch, Norwegians, and other Europeans settled in parts of what was to become the United States. But it was the English who were the largest numbers. And it was the English who came to control the thirteen colonies that stretched for 1300 miles along the Atlantic seaboard.

These early pioneers who cleared the wilderness and fought off the Indians had to make out their own future in the New World. But they came here in search of greater freedom and they brought with them the political ideas of the English.

Founding Fathers at Philadelphia in the summer of 1787. History is full of dramatic incidents, thoughts, and ideas. We shall now review the high points of these beginnings.

The Colonial Period

When and they brought with them political ideas which they had learned from the English. They brought with them the knowledge of a government system that had been working and developing in England for hundreds of years.

These political ideas of the English that came to the United States were not new. They were old ideas that had been working in England for hundreds of years.

These early pioneers who cleared the wilderness and fought off the Indians had to make out their own future in the New World. But they came here in search of greater freedom and they brought with them the political ideas of the English.

SETTLERS AT WORK

Early Americans had to live together in harmony, or they would not survive. This was called "government in order to live," the beginning of our government today.

of which are to be found today — county, borough, city, sheriff, coroner, and justice of the peace, for example. And all of these were well known in many early English colonies.

1.2 The Two Concepts of Limited Government and Civil Liberties. They brought with them, too, the twin ideas of limited government and civil liberties. That is, that government is limited in what it may do, and, especially, that it is limited in the sense that each man has certain rights that government cannot injure or take away. These great principles of freedom were proclaimed in such historic English documents as the Magna Carta in 1215, the Petition of Right in 1628, and the Bill of Rights and the Act of Toleration of 1689.

1.3 The Concept of Representative Government. A third vitally important concept brought to America in English ships was that of representative government. For centuries there had been developing in England the

Tahitian Twilight

In the beautifully-appointed Tulane Room of the internationally-renowned Jung Hotel to the rhythmic beat of "The Creoles", exquisitely gowned guests danced the hours away at the annual Junior-Senior Prom.

Loyal faculty members Mr. Larkins, Mrs. Bowman, Mr. Taylor, and Mr. Emelle have only a minute for a quick pose.

The Seniors and Juniors swinging into the final social highlight of the year in the exotic "Tahitian Twilight." It was truly an "Adventure in Paradise."

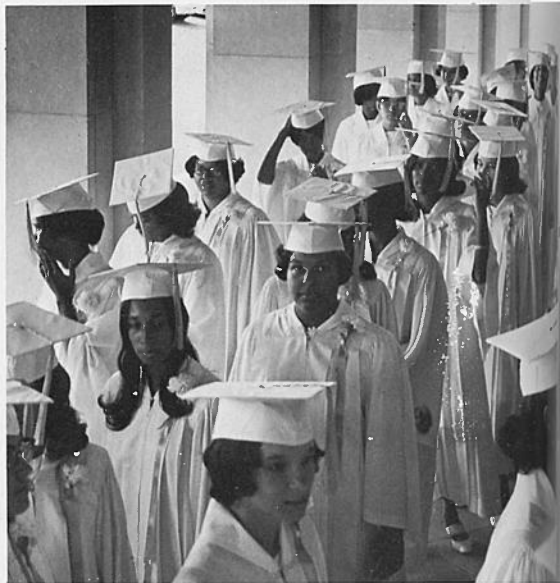

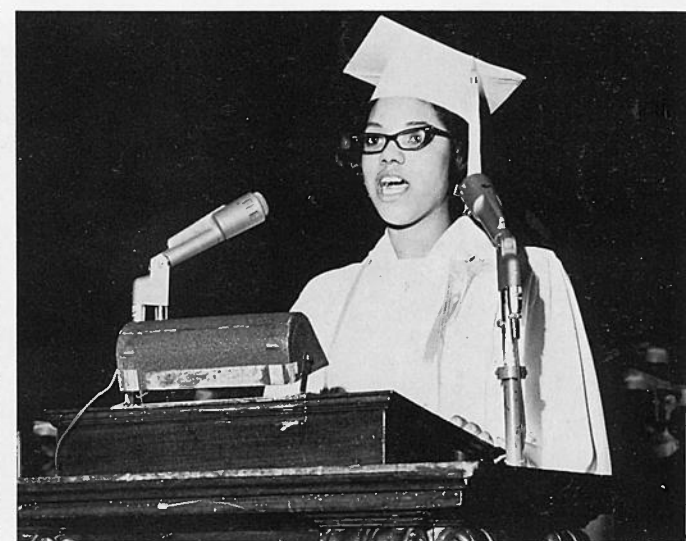

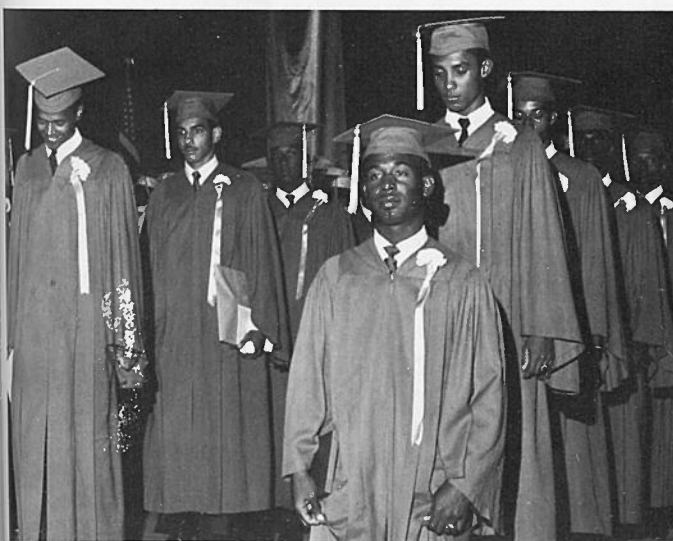

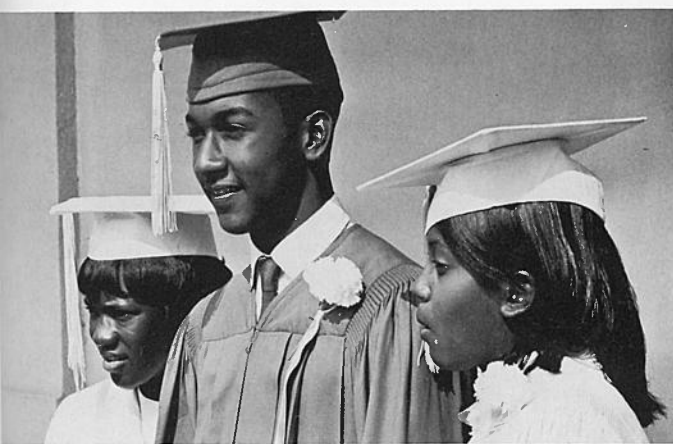

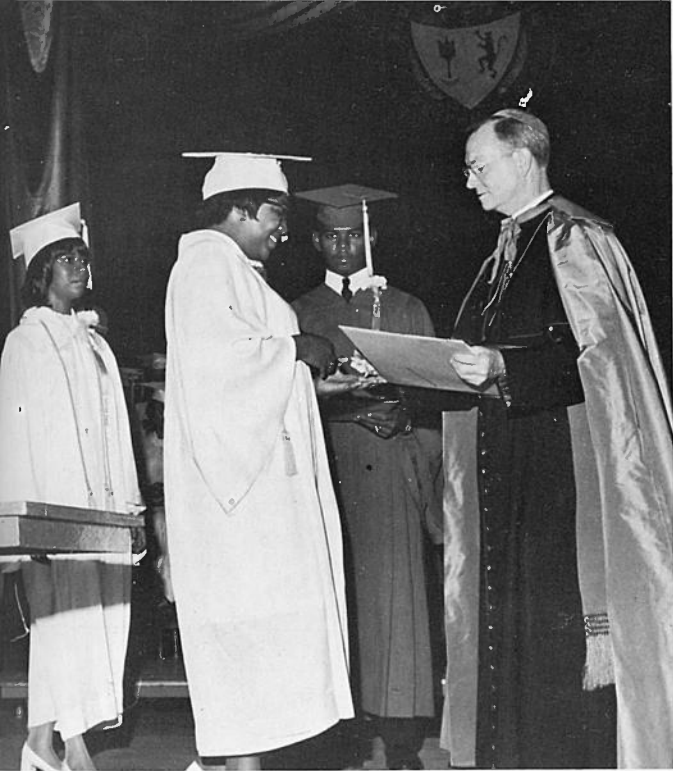

Graduation Day

"Oh! Dream of Joy! Is this indeed the lighthouse top we see?"

"There is an old French proverb, 'Noblesse oblige'. ... We, the Class of 1968 - thanks to you, our parents, teachers, friends, and counselors - have realized through our high school commencement more than just a commencement. We have realized a noble birth. ... We stand at the threshold of the age of the individual and we seek to complete our duties nobly. ... May we always follow your example in finding the strength to meet the challenges of our brave, new world."

Deidre Marion

It's Over Now, But Never Forgotten . . .

"Just put it anywhere, Steward, anywhere at all."

"Our Hearts Were Young and Gay"

The Class of '68 chose for their Senior play Jean Kerr's dramatization of Cornelia Otis Skinner and Emily Kimbrough's hilarious adventures en route to Paris. An enthusiastic audience responded to the efforts of the cast with peals of laughter.

Roxlyn Mogilles and Kyle Meriwether as Cornelia and Emily turned in sparkling performances in the leading roles, and they were ably supported by the rest of the star-studded senior cast.

In retrospect we all agree that the title of the play aptly describes our high school days, the time when "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay."

"I'm going to do this simply because I don't want you to have any misconception of my true nature,"

"Oh, bid me leap, rather than marry Paris, from off the battlements of yonder tower."

We wish to extend special thanks in this section to these

Seniors

for outstanding support of the XAVIERIAN.

Therefore ... we leave to those who follow, our
heritage of knowledge,
guidance, and understanding through the faculty and administration of our Alma Mater. Although we leave this for you, we are also taking it with us. For, this is not the end for us.
It is not even the beginning of the end. It is only the end of the beginning.
