DEDICATION

We have arrived upon the threshold-our next step will carry us over the boundary of life. We will be entering life as adults and we are prepared.

As people with independency, a part of our nature, we are inclined to say that we ourselves are responsible for our own lives. We say that we have earned our separate honors. In that respect we are very selfish. We tend to forget about the persons who have guided us through life. From our conception until we have begun our own paths through life. We owe our preparation to our parents, teachers and others who have given themselves for us. They have shared our separate sorrows and have found joy in our happy moments.

Such as it is, we the seniors of 1968 dedicate our yearbook to our parents, guardians, teachers, and all others who have been instrumental in preparing us for our future.

They have been with us, are with us and will always be with us living, learning, and doing.

CAROL BALTHAZAR

FOREWORD

Just what is the meaning of an education? It is far more than the knowledge one can gain from a book.

With this in mind, we the 1968 staff of the Rosarite, chose for its theme "Living, Learning, Doing".

In this book, which we have enjoyed working so diligently to compile, it is our wish to convey to you the true meaning of our theme.

As you page through this annual we hope that you not only recall the events of this year and see familiar faces of friends and relatives, but that you retain a true picture of Rosary: Living, Learning and Doing.

My dear Seniors:

That Holy Rosary continues to grow in number and quality in these difficult times is one of the many reasons to be grateful. We now count on your loyalty to its teachings.

To each of you, I send my blessing for success and happiness.

Sincerely yours in our Lord,

Dear Graduates,

Although it is many years, I can recall clearly what joy my graduation was to me. I have no trouble, then, to make the transfer to you and to know that you are ready to take the world by storm. Like youth in every age, you are sure that that life and all that it means is waiting for you, and so it is, for there is no doubt that you have been prepared to bring to our weary world what is best in human endeavors. You must be ready to give, not take selfishly if you hope to bring happiness to others AND to yourselves. Ask but one thing of life, "NOT WHAT YOU CAN RECEIVE BUT WHAT YOU CAN GIVE."

Sincerely in J.M.J.,

Mother Marie Anselm

REV. WILLIAM OLIVER - SVD - Director

"In order for individual men to discharge with greater exactness the obligations of their conscience toward themselves and the various groups to which they belong, they must be carefully educated to a higher degree of culture through the use of the immense resources available today to the human race. Above all the education of youth from every social background has to be undertaken, so that there can be produced not only men and women of refined talents, but those great-souled persons who are so desperately required by our times."

"Now a man can scarcely arrive at the needed sense of responsibility unless his living conditions allow him to become conscious of his dignity, and to rise to his destiny by spending himself for God and for others. But human freedom is often crippled when a man falls into extreme poverty, just as it withers when he indulges in too many of life's comforts and imprisons himself in a kind of splendid isolation. Freedom requires new strength, by contrast, when a man consents to the unavoidable requirements of social life, takes on the manifold demands of human partnership, and commits himself to the service of the human community . . ." These words should be remembered by our seniors.

Dear Graduates of 1968:

For the past four years you have walked the corridors of Holy Rosary Institute. During this long stretch of time you have been under the loving care, guidance and inspiration of the Sisters of the Holy Family; the Priest and Brothers of the Society of The Divine Word; the Devoted lay-members of the faculty and the helpers on the campus. We have tried to make deep and lasting impressions on young minds and hearts. We along with your parents wanted you to realize the value of a worthwhile Catholic education and the powerful effect for good it should have upon your character.

Now as you take your fond farewell from your Alma Mater, may I suggest that you try to live the following prayer of St. Francis Of Assisi:

"Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy."

May it always be the shining goal to inspire you to a holy and wholesome life-This is my hope and my prayer.

God love you always,

Sister M. Francis Regis, S. B. F.

FACULTY

It is with love and admiration that we, The Rosarite Staff thank the members of the 1967-68 faculty for all they have done for us both in and out of the classrooms. It is but a humble effort to show our appreciation for your year of leadership. May your remaining years be with us and may they be happy and fruitful ones in God's vineyard.

CREED OF THE FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

I believe that free education is the right of every young person in America.

I believe that the future of America depends upon mutual understanding and cooperation of business, industry, labor, the home, the church, the school, and by the peoples of our own and other lands. I agree to do my utmost to bring about better understanding and cooperation on the part of all these groups.

I believe every young person should prepare himself for a useful occupation, and that he should carry on that occupation in a manner that will bring the greatest good to the greatest number.

I believe every young person should be actively interested in better social, political, community, and family life.

I believe every young person has a right to earn his living at a useful occupation and that this right should not be denied him because of race, color, or creed.

I believe every young person should take responsibility for carrying out assigned tasks in a manner that will reflect credit to himself, his associates, his school, and his community.

I believe in my own ability to work efficiently and to think clearly, and I pledge myself to use these abilities to make America a better place for everyone.

Everyone able to read a good book becomes a wiser man. He becomes a similar centre of light and order, and just insight into the things around him. A collection of good books contains all the nobleness and wisdom of the world before us . . . a collection of books is the best of all universities . . .
