Friday morning, October 20, 1959, Levy's Campus was a scene of excitement. Instead of the usual parade through Rosedale, Prosser-Tote and Maringouin, the students were placed in groups to decorate the campus. Prizes were given for the best decoration. First prize was given to the second grade and the ninth grade. The tenth and fourth grades claimed the second prize, and third prize was given to the first grade and the senior class.

On the day of Homecoming the queen wore a white dress and green accessories, she carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums bound with a green ribbon. Her maids wore green dresses with white decky hats and accessories. They wore white chrysanthemums corsages.

"Miss Elementary" and "Miss Junior High" wore pastels with black patent shoes and white gloves. Their maids were also in pastel colors.

T. A. Levy High School Celebrates Homecoming

By Brenda Joyce Pelichet
The students at Thomas A. Levy School are very proud of the 1959 homecoming activities. The third annual coronation was held on October 29 in Thomas A. Levy's gymnasium.

"Miss Elementary" and her maids were first to appear. They were all in pastel colors: Edna Hammond in green, Theresa Dorsey and Pearl Harris in pink, Diana Gage in white, and Bonnie Faye Guillard, "Miss Elementary" in blue.

"Miss Junior High" and her maid came next. Lucille Rattler as "Miss Junior High." She was dressed in yellow and her maid, Gail Kelly, was in pink.

Next to approach the scene were the queen's maids. They were Leona Sanders in lilac, Marion Toles in blue, and Katie Cole in pink.

The audience stood to honor Miss Bettye Jean Carroll, "Miss T. A. Levy of 1959." Marching before the queen were Tiger captains Lionel Harris and Ernest Poolfolk. Behind the queen was Tiger captain Joseph Stewart.

Miss Carroll was dressed in yellow. This was a beautiful evening dress of ballerina length. She wore white gloves and black patent pumps.

A beautiful program preceded the processional, including a solo dedicated to the queen by Ida Lee Daye. The crowning of the queen was done by the sponsor, Miss E. M. Myles.

a white dress with green accessories. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums bound with a green ribbon. Her maids wore green dresses with white derby hats and accessories. They wore corsages of white chrysthemums.

"Miss Elementary," "Miss Junior High" and their maids wore pastels with white gloves and black patent shoes.

Homecoming ended with the annual dance at 8 p. m., but the reign of Miss Bettye Jean Carroll has just begun.

Tigers Lash Bulldogs, 14-6 at Homecoming

(Homecoming)

By Brenda Joyce Pellehet

They said it couldn't be done! They said the Tigers couldn't do it. But in Levy's stadium Friday night, as Levy celebrated its homecoming, it happened. This was the thrill of the season—the game everyone had waited for.

In the first half, the opponents, Iberville High's Bulldogs, managed to break through the Tiger line and score a touchdown. It was an awful blow to the Tiger fans, but they continued to cheer their team onward.

The Tiger fans had their thrill in the second half as Eddie "Sewell" Jackson managed to secure the ball and score a touchdown. The extra point was scored by Lionel "The Hog" Harris.

Every spectator seemed to be a cheerleader, every player seemed to be a star.

Many eyes watched the beautiful interception of Charlie Lemar and the famous fake passes by quarterback Joseph Stewart. Many voices cheered the marvelous movements of Willie Walls and Ernest Woolfolk as they ground out yardage to bring their team forward.

The fourth quarter found the Tigers leading 8-6. William "Big Bill" Hill managed to score another touchdown.

The game ended 14-6. At T. A. Levy there was a proud team and a gang of delighted cheerleaders. There was also a proud school.

The Tigers will soon meet the Northwestern Braves in a playoff or district championship.
