SENIORS

We are the seniors as
You can see
You can't bring up a subject
Upon which we'll agree.

We've done our work and
Know it all
They'll soon hang our Pictures on the wall.

We are sorry to leave the three
Little fish brave and bold
We mean the Juniors, Freshmen,
And Sophomores.

We now leave you Webster
To love, honor and obey
For it is you who has helped us
On this toilsome way.

Next in line are know-it-all Juniors
Pretty smart chums no droppy petunias
This year they are doing a lot of concentrating
So next year, they will be graduating.

They never buy a coke or a hamburger bun
They save all their pennies five to one

The Sophomore class is third in line,
And we shall never fall
behind
Dear classmates we aren't done,
But our work has just begun.

Come on freshman and meet your court,
For when you are a soph you will have to be a sport.
The seniors look at us with a sigh,
The juniors give us that knowing
eye,
Freshman, like the sophomore
Try to reach that goal by and

LYRE CLUB

MIXED CHORUS

The mixed chorus was organized September 14, 1937. This organization is presented many times on the campus, in the city, in other nearby towns many times during the year.

It fosters monthly vesper services, which are very inspiring. The mixed chorus has a membership of thirty-eight. Since the establishment of this organization it has made rapid strides toward progress which it is constantly attaining.

Miss Alice Brown _____ Pianist
Miss Myrtle Edwin Wright _____ Directress

THE GIRLS GLEE CLUB

The Girls Glee Club was organized four years ago, strictly for students by Miss M. E. Wright. It is a very popular organization on the campus. It affords a wonderful opportunity for young women to develop an appreciation for the best music. The Girls Glee Club has appeared in Broadcast performances several times and won honor places at the District and State Rally which is sponsored by the L.I.A.L.A. It also renders special services on the campus.

BOYS QUARTET

This is one of the outstanding musical organizations of the school. It won first place in the North Louisiana District Rally in 1940 and 1941 and second place in the State Rally in 1940. It is often called upon to sing at various programs and is one of the most useful agents in promoting good-will between school and community.

Miss Alice Brown	Directress

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

In the year of 1936 the Webster Band was organized by the principal, Professor J. L. Jones, with Mr. E. D. Gardner as instructor. There were sixteen instruments bought by the school for this purpose. These are the pioneers of this great organization:

TRUMPETERS: Calvin Strickland, Rudolph Johnson and Marguerite Adams
 CLARINETISTS: Mildred Washington and Jessie Stone
 SAXOPHONISTS: Dorothy Spiller, Mable Leary and Clifton Shaw
 BASS: Robert Kirk
 TROMBONISTS: Odessa Strickland and Overlaster Hall; Alto Players—
 Clarence Reed and Loyd Greenard; Baritone Player—Melrose Coleman.
 DRUMMERS: Arthur King, Hortense Paine

About two years later the band was improved by a swing band. The Webster Society Syncopators made tours over many sections of North Louisiana. This organization is hailed and praised by everyone.

During the year of 1938 Calvin Strickland, first trumpeter, won first award in the district and state rallies. The following year the band made the trip and it placed as the second best in the State.

There has been an organization recently formed by the members of the band called the Lyre Club, which is making rapid progress.

GIRLS HI-Y

The Girls Hi-Y was organized October 5, 1935 by Miss Tess G. McGhee. For many years this organization has been one of the most outstanding organizations on the campus. Its motto is: "Not for ourselves, but for others." The Girls Hi-Y is affiliated with the State and National Hi-Y. The Vice-President of the State Hi-Y is Barnetta Mullin, a Webster student. Each year the organization sends delegates to various conferences which proves to be very helpful. The Girls Hi-Y has sponsored many educational, religious and social programs. Its aim is to be an organization of service to all.

POETRY CLUB

The Poetry Club represents one phase of the literary activity in our school. Students are given the opportunity to express their thoughts other than through composition. This club was organized during the school year 1939-40. Much initiative has been shown on the part of the club members. Several programs have been presented by this organization. All numbers presented on these programs were written by the club members. The aim of the club is to develop more interest and appreciation in the literary phase of our lives.

OFFICERS

Ethel Nunley _____	President
Cloteal Thomas _____	Vice-President
Verneda Wortham _____	Secretary
Ada Mae Scott _____	Social Director

This organization is composed of tenth grade home-makers and the purposes are as follows: To gain insight on social graces; to establish ideals and ideas of finer womanhood and to teach worthy use of lesiure.

NEW FARMERS OF AMERICA

The New Farmers of America, under the instruction of Mr. Noel Bickham for the past four years, has some worthy accomplishments to their credit. In the agricultural department, young men get training of leadership and much experience that can only be obtained in that department. It is the custom of this chapter to do various community services. Every Christmas the members contribute to the poor and needy through a joy fund.

The rating of the chapter has been raised considerably; it now has about seven improved farmers and two modern farmers. Some of the efficient leaders who ably assisted the chapter in obtaining and maintaining its high standards are: Webb Moore and Jessie Stone, candidates for the degree of Modern Farmer.

The New Farmers organized a Thrift Bank two years ago which is giving students experience in banking.

DRAMATICS CLUB

In developing the artistic side of students the Dramatics Club has done much. This club is a member of the Louisiana Inter-Scholastic Athletic and Literary Association and each year presents at least three one-act plays and one three-act. The one-act play consisting of the best literary and dramatic qualities is presented each year at the District Drama Festival of the L.I.A.L.A.

ARDENIA: Miss Dargan, Miss Wade said if there are any dramatical errors in this please correct them.

MISS DARGAN: Don't tell that on Miss Wade.

ESTELLA PIERCE: Miss White, those are beautiful shoes. I bet you paid $3.00 or $4.00 for them.

MISS WHITE: Honey, these are Red Cross shoes; you know what I mean.

ESTELLA: Oh! yes ma'am, you mean you didn't have to pay for them; they gave them to you.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones on the way to Shreveport—

MRS. JONES: "Watch out there Joe, you are driving too fast."

MR. JONES: "Oh! Olee, I've been driving cars since I was 25 years old."

MRS. JONES: "Oh! Joe, you know they weren't driving cars when you were 25 years old."
