Foreword

To those who honor Webster's past; who glory in her present; who trust in her future; we, the class of 1950, offer "The Wolf".

The Annual Staff

WEBSTER HIGH SCHOOL COOPERATIVE COMMITTEE

Ellis Montgomery, Pres., Burnis Harris, Richard Drew, Richard Dobbie.

The duties of this committee are to check the finances of the school, and to assist the principal in any serious problem.

Dedication

To Principal W. Leon Hayes whose friendly advice and encouragement has guided the present senior class over the major part of their high school experiences; and to whom is due a great deal of the credit for the success of the annual; we gratefully dedicate "The Wolf."

IN MEMORIAM

One Love Principal, Mr. J. L. Jones

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Having inherited one of the best schools in Louisiana, I can proudly say that we are living up to the rich heritage that for twenty nine (29) years we have ardently built. In thinking of the past, I only have pleasant memories, and looking to the future, I feel that we can expect only the best.

We have a fine staff and the best students to be found anywhere. Our graduates have commanded respect the world over and have gone into every field of endeavor.

I shall be happy only when Webster High School is totally integrated into the community life of Minden until it loses its identity as such, and be a place where love, friendship, service, character building, good citizenship, honesty, and wholesome living are daily tasks.

I want to thank the citizens and students for their cooperation in the past and solicit their help in the future. "Higher Yet" is my prayer.

SENIOR CLASS POEM

Who follows in our footsteps

When from Webster's doors we pass
To them we leave our aims and hopes
The jolly Junior class.
Uphold your stainless standards,
Never let your colors fall
So that next year the rest will say,
"The Seniors are the best of all!"

And to our loyal brothers and sisters
As we leave the high school doors,
We say, "Be true to Webster's trust,
Be loyal sophomores!"
So fast the years are passing
To our trust in you be true,
Forever you know the days are gone,
And you'll be grave old Seniors, too.

And Freshmen, dear young Freshmen,
Tis this we say to you
"It isn't what you have that counts,
But really what you do."
And classes all, remember
No matter what you do
Or what you say, remember this,
That Webster trusts in you.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Our class dates back to the fall of 1938 when as esthetic young first graders each one of us was seized by some power inevitably known as the "Webster Spirit".

On our way on this toilsome journey we met Mrs. A. L. Smith, Mrs. M. D. Moore, and Mrs. M. Citison the first year. Miss O. G. Dotson the second, Mrs. Jordan the third, Miss Dotson again the fourth, along with Miss V. Lewis, Mrs. O. R. Jones the fifth, Mrs. M. Leary the sixth, Miss E. Boyd the seventh, that's when our most enjoyable activity began. We spent the whole year writing lines "I will not talk in class, instead of having history."

Eighth grade brought on a lot of new classmates. The big class was divided into three divisions.

We took cooking and sewing from Mrs. T. L. Duty and Miss A. L. Byrd.

Our greatest event happened when the girls had to do cafeteria work. We were determined not to dress in the cold dressing room, so we went on a "Strike". Miss Davis, the teacher, sent for Mr. Jones and he STROKE US.

The first opera ever presented at Webster High was presented by our music class, entitled "Porgy and Bess," with Miss D. Jackson as director.

The last mile post is now in sight. We returned to Webster September 1949 to reach the high and honored position which we have for the last twelve years so diligently striven.

Every activity on our campus has been exclusively frequented by members of our class; band, dramatics, choir, N.H.A., N.F.A., S.A.A.A. Clubs, Girls Reserve, Principal's Advisory Comm., Annual staff all testify to our genius. In each one there will remain a gap after our departure.

An army closely bound together by bonds of love and comradeship. We the senior class feel grateful to be the first class to graduate from the twelfth grade. These our last years have truly been a victory, a victory made easier by so many memorable events and improvements including our new principal, the purchasing of a streamline bus, movie machine projector, new cafeteria, canteen, and elementary building, enlargement of gym, lights on the football field, and landscaping of the campus.

Until today thirty-five of us stand together for the last time as a class, our battles almost ended, our much desired victory almost won. It is with heavy hearts we realize we shall come to our parting of the ideals, teachings and friends we cherish so much.

Our years at Webster have been full of work and play, joy and sorrow. Our friendships have grown through the years to be more strong, more beautiful and more lasting. To the students we entrust the honor of our beloved Webster, which we have tried to keep spotless.

We ask praise for our efforts, mercy for our faults and a tear for our memory, as the curtain falls on this the last act of our high school life.
