PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

We again greet you through our yearbook THE WOLF. This year marks my fifth year as principal and one of our most successful years. We boast of our largest and most brilliant senior class, all activities improved and a new school in sight. Let us all join in one acclaim--"Webster we love you" and strive hard to make it what we would like for it to be.

W. Leon Hayes

MESSAGE

TO: Annual Staff

It gives me a great deal of pleasure to write my first message for the Annual. I sincerely believe that you are doing a great service to the school and the community in the field of public relation. It is a very remarkable piece of work--probably the best in this area.

I believe education is our greatest weapon in our fight for peace, rights, privileges and freedom. I encourage all students to stay in school and improve your minds, so as to enable you to think for yourselves in this dynamic world of today and tomorrow.

Webster High School is a school with a great heritage and a colorful history. Let us show the nation that we are proud of Webster by the type of work we do as students and teachers.

CLASS HISTORY

CLASS SENTIMENTAL JOURNEY

In the fall of September 1941, the sentimental journey began for the senior class of '53 with Mrs. M. D. Moore and the late Mrs. A. L. Smith as our first directors of this journey. The class pioneers of this journey who have worked until the end are: Emmitt Bailey, Dolphus Thomas, Frankie Wilson, Artisia Gaines, Mack Willis, Aline Day, Ozzie Wilson, Nancy Mollette, Pat Washington, Billy Bailey, Rudolph Bailey, Jerry Allums.

We enjoyed immensely the second year under the direction of Mrs. R. P. Moore, Mrs. Anderson and Miss Maybruce. That year one joined on this journey, Lizzie Jefferson.

The third year's journey at Webster we were in Mrs. A. L. Jordan and Miss Castill's rooms. That year was enjoyable also. Harvey Mitchell, Lillian Williams and Daisey Carter joined us on this journey.

Our fourth year's journey at Webster was the first exciting one. Our class sister Lillian Williams was the first Little Miss Webster in the history of Webster, Billy Bailey was her escort. Our directors were Mrs. M. M. Jones and Miss Odell Dotson. James McClellan, Lucile Ewell and Charletta Willis joined us.

The fifth year's journey we won Little Miss Webster again, Mattie McGlothen was given this honor. Our directors were Mrs. O. R. Jones and Miss D. M. Bedford who later became Mrs. Rollings.

The sixth year we were under the direction of Mrs. M. E. Leary. She will always be remembered for the swell birthday parties given to us.

Our seventh year's journey Mrs. O. R. Jones was our teacher who has retired after twenty-seven years of loyal service; she will always be remembered by each of us. She was known by all of us as "Ma Jones." This was our first year taking vacations. The girls went to Mrs. Duty and Miss Sweedy Weary, who later became Mrs. Charlie Brown. The boys were under the instruction of Mr. Turner and Mr. Gilmore. Two joined us this year: Annie Billard and Cardell Malone.

During the eighth year's journey we had twenty-five to join us; they were: Strody Sterling, Callie Morgan, Louise Copper, Rosie Banks, Lucy Green, Charlie Robinson, Mary Murray, Moene McDaniel, Omeria McGlothen, Andrew Carter, Freddie Banks, Edwin Fuller, Leatrice Dixon, James Stones, Willie Banks, Effie Millermer, Dorothy Burns, Louisa Fullwood, Ertis Dixon, Catherine Dowell, Mary Amos and Betty Shelton. Our directors were Mrs. T. L. Duty, Mrs. Lewis and Mr. Turner.

Our high school journey began at Webster in the ninth Grade with Miss Lillian Mitchell and Mr. Willis Howell as our directors. Rev. Willie Odum joined our class on this year.

The next year was our tenth year at Webster. We were under the leadership of Mr. Eddie Heard and Mr. Jackson. This was the year of our first tour. We went to Baton Rouge. There we visited some interesting places such as the State Capitol, Southern University, Deaf and Blind School and the new million dollar McKinley Senior High School. That year three joined us, they were: Bernice McFan, Beanie Grishy and Earnestine Rice.

Our journey was getting closer to the end and the best was still to come. This is the year of our Junior-Senior Prom, with the Stork Club as our setting. We take pride and boast of being told we gave the best one ever given at Webster. Then we went on another tour which carried us to the National Military in Vicksburg, Mississippi and a high school in New Iberia Louisiana. That year seven joined us under the leadership of Mrs. June Turner, Mrs. Abbie Johnson and Mr. Wiley Carter, they were: Johnnie Burson, Dezhell Shepard, James Zachery, Monroe Johnson, Velma Frazer, Thomas Morgan and Shirley Linnear.

Our journey has come to an end, and we seventy-three seniors are together for the last time as a class. We will not be active in the following activities: Band, Choir, Dramatic, F. T. A., N. H. A., N. F. A., Girls' Hi-Y, Boys' Hi-Y, P. A. C., Science Club, Teen-agers Club, Patrol Force, Basketball, Football, Baseball and many others. One of our big events was the crowning of Miss Webster, Callie Morgan. On our last year ten joined us, they were: Mrs. Doris Benton, Mr. John Hill, Mr. Luther Jefferson, Mr. Jarius Kendrick, Mr. Tolbert Lewis, Mr. L. Davis Mack, Mrs. Enola Mims, Mr. Robert Reed, Mrs. Ruby Lee Taylor and Mrs. Fannie McGlothen.

CLASS SONG

Tune: "The World Is Waiting For The Sunrise"

Webster, Webster, thy name shall live forever,
Wherever we go, we'll sing
forth thy praise.
Thy loyal children we'll be forever
And wherever we go thy standards raise.

II

Farewell, farewell we're leaving
but not forgetting,
Those hours so dear we spent with delight.
Farewell, farewell we're leaving
you forever,
We'll 'er be true to the white and blue.
