Foreword

PRINCIPLES OF SCHOOL PUBLIC RELATIONS

Public relations seeks to bring about a harmony of understanding any group and the public it serves, upon whose good will it depends.

School publicity is an important function and interpretation of the school program, and a cooperative search for mutual understanding and an experience in effective team-work.

The Wolf, more specifically stated, included the following:

1. To inform the public, parents and friends about the school work and activities of Webster High School.
2. To establish confidence in the school.
3. To develop awareness of the importance of education in a democracy.
4. To integrate the home, school, and community in improving educational opportunities for all children of Webster Parish and Minden, Louisiana.

We the members of the Annual Staff, sincerely hope you will enjoy orbiting the Wolf.

Dedication

Hey! Coaches Garrett and Johnson

Coach Helen Garrett - Coach O. Johnson

The year 1960 brought many good things to us at Webster High School. We have much to be grateful for.

Our highest honours came by way of athletics. Our basketball and baseball teams performed splendidly. Due to their superior skill, unmatched sportsmanship, and masterful training they became Louisiana State Champions for the year 1960-'61.

Many tournaments have been won by our team, and several times they have gone to the state tournament but unfortunately lost. Eager each year to try again, it finally happened, "The Wolves Were State Champs." This entitled them to play in the national tournament at Nashville, Tennessee.

To the coaches of the year, Mrs. H. C. Garrett and Mr. O. Johnson and the basketball and baseball teams, we dedicate the "Wolf" of 1961.

In Memory

THE OLD HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING

In 1923 they built it,
Not of a durable brick,
But of a stout and sturdy frame.
It was not expected to subdue a flame.
It was built for the pupils of our town,
Not expected to last forever, so in time it had to come down.

Its bell made many valuable calls
To the eager students who passed its halls
Classes from fifth thru twelfth were taught there.
Some of the famous teachers studied there.
But in 1960 the people of our town,
Said in great despair, "You must come down."

The memory will linger long,
For a youth center shall be sprung,
In the sixties they hope to build it.
It will be of a durable brick.
Happy will be the youths of our town.
But in time . . . it too, will have to come down.

The Editor and Co-Editors Message

Each year one of the greatest outlooks for the Senior Class is selecting the members for the Annual Staff. For us, this yearbook will be our souvenir, one which we shall always cherish in remembrance of the dearest of all principals, the most skillful of all teachers, the best all around students, and the enjoyment of every moment spent in our twenty one various activities.

As Editors of this yearbook, we can assure you that there is a special charm in our yearbook that will never seem old.

We the members of the Annual Staff hope that this yearbook will forever linger with you wherever you may roam.

As you scan these pages we hope you'll agree, the 1961 Wolf, is the ideal yearbook for you and me.

WEBSTER HIGH SCHOOL'S PHILOSOPHY

We try to provide experiences for boys and girls that will develop them into happy, useful citizens.

OBJECTIVES OF WEBSTER HIGH

A major objective of Webster High School shall be to develop loyal and intelligent citizens in our American Democracy. Another aim shall be to achieve the fullest possible growth and development of each pupil, both as an individual and as a member of his social group.

My New Motto

"We Can Do Better"

by
J. Jones

Principal's Message

Today marks twelve times of my sitting to write my message. Everyone has an idol, and from my constant referring to my Father during your twelve years as students under my administration, no doubt should exist that my Father was my idol. In thinking of something optimistic to say during these times of stress and strain, I thought "What would my Dad have said to the young people who are going out into the world?" What follows represents what I think he would have said to you: Life is worth living. Everything is not dark. Behind each cloud the radiant sun is waiting to shine once more. Go out into the world of work with an open mind constantly improving yourself through consecrated dedicated service and diligent pursuit of knowledge. Enroll in some school. Those who must work, try to improve yourself educationally by going to Adult Schools, Evening Classes, reading, travel, etc. Remember that the three H's make the difference in a person: The heart, head and hands. If you have a kind, sympathetic heart that is governed by the Judeo-Christian Ethics, a head that has been developed to its fullest potential, and willing hands to do whatever is good that comes your way, you cannot fail.

W. Leon Hayes

Teachers

Teachers are a symbol
Of knowledge that we know,
Their duty to transplant it
In the minds of youth to grow.

Teachers offer challenge
To a changing world and time
In league with mental process
Life's duty they outline.

Teachers are an honor
To the area that they serve
Adjusting life to progress
Aiding justice we preserve.

Teachers are a factor
In our future time and trend
For they prepare foundations
That youth expands, amends.

Teachers are the people
That promote thought;
All our country's progress
Came from labor they wrought.

So we say to teachers
Wherever you may be,
Life's future is dependent
On the thoughts you seed.

Teachers are not just people earning a living; they are the architects of our future in a land of freedom of opportunity.

From

TO THE SENIORS

Try, Try Again

is a lesson you should heed,

Try, try, again;
When your courage shall appear,
For if you will persevere,
You will conquer, never fear,
Try, try again.

Once or twice though you should fail,

Try, try again;
If at last you would prevail,
Try, try again;
If we strive 'tis no disgrace
Tho' we may not win the race,
What should you do in that case?
Try, try again.

If you find your task is hard,

Try, try again;
Time will bring you your reward,
Try, try again;

All that other folks can do,
Why, with patience, may not you?
Only keep this rule in view,

Try, try again.

THREE KINDS OF COURAGE

There's the courage that nerves you in starting to climb

The mount of success rising sheer;

And when you've slipped back, there's the courage sublime

That keeps you from shedding a tear

These two kinds of courage, I give you my word, are worthy of tribute - but then

You'll not reach the summit unless you've the third-

The courage of Try-It-Again.

By: Roy Farrell

The Parts of Speech

Three little words you often see

Are articles a, an, and the.

A noun's the name of anything.

As house or garden, hoop or swing.

Instead of nouns the pronouns stand--

Her head, Your face, his arm, my hand.

Adjectives tell the kind of noun,

As great, small, pretty, white or brown.

Verbs tell something to be done--

To read, count, sing, laugh or run.

How things are done the adverbs tell,

As slowly, quickly, ill or well.

Conjunctions join the words together.

The preposition stands before

A noun, as in or through a door.

The interjection shows surprise,

As oh! how pretty, ah! how wise.

The whole are called nine parts of speech,

Which reading, writing, speaking teach.

Assembly Programs

The assembly program is considered as an integral part of the curriculum at Webster High School. We believe that the objectives as set up by the assembly committee are evidenced in each program. These objectives are:

- No. 1. To enrich the educational and cultural experiences so that socio-economic and spiritual horizons will be broadened.
- No. 2. To encourage creativity and provide an avenue of self-expression.
- No. 3. To afford democratic experiences that will raise individual and group standards.
- No. 4. To supplement curricular activities and consolidate the entire program of the school.
- No. 5. To unify the student body and strengthen "esprit de corps."
- No. 6. To foster understanding and loyal relationship in the community.
- No. 7. To build a thinking public that will perpetuate the American way of life, and to deepen the young person's understanding of the people of the world.

With these objectives we feel that the assembly is a fundamental and indisputable educational force.

Our theme is "Better Assemblies for Better Discipline" and the Motto is "Assembly Programs Build Character."

The members of the committee are: Mr. F. L. Knox, Mrs. Mable W. Jones, Mr. Willie Hayes and Mr. William Bostick.

—Winners Code—

It takes a little courage
And a little self-control
And some grim determination
If you want to reach your goal.

A MESSAGE FROM (ME), "MISS WEBSTER"

One of the greatest honors that can be bestowed upon a senior young lady is that of being Miss Webster. The fact that you, the student body, thought me worthy of the honor, places within my heart something which will linger there forever. Although, rather difficult to analyze, it is not a feeling of overbearing pride, but as it should be, it is a feeling of utmost meekness. Honors weren't designed to make people change in a negative direction. Realizing this, I shall strive in a positive direction toward making you infinitely proud of me.

WHO WE'D LIKE TO BE.

We'd like to be the type of leaders
 that you have always wanted to see;
 We'd like to be the kind of help that you have always been so glad to be;
 We'd like to mean as much to you
 each minute of the day;
 As you have meant to us, dear leaders,
 to us along our way.

We are wishing at this time
 that we could only repay;
 A portion of your time and gladness
 you have shown along our way.
 And if we had but one wish, this year
 that wish would only be;
 We'd like to be the type of leaders
 you have always wanted to see.
