We the senior class of 1958 dedicate this book to our sponsor, Mr. Gauthier, who has worked so willingly with us through the years.

Dedication

In Memoriam

"And white robes were given them and it was said unto them rest yet for a little season until their fellow servants, also and their brethern, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled".

Principal's Message

My Dear Seniors of 1958;

Congratulation for your success in the first Annual of Charles Drew. You have done a marvelous job. You are ready to depart from Charles Drew never to return as a student.

May I remind you of a few things? Today is the day for action. Now is the time to complete the job that lies before you. Today's world wants men and women who have the habit of doing things and getting them done. It has no place for men and women who know not where they are going.

"Give me liberty or give me death. Fifty-four forty or fight". These are but a few of the inspiring words that have led men to victory in pursuits of happiness and freedom. Today we as members of a minority group must girt ourselves to march forward and throw off the yoke of half-freedom and march off as free men and women, first class citizens of America. But, my seniors, you can't stand still and do this:

God bless you in all your undertakings.
