THE INDIAN

WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL
LAKE CHARLES, LOUISIANA

Dedication

MARY WASHINGTON

HENRY CREECH

Dear hearts, rest serenely with God. This,
"The Indian," is dedicated to the two of you who were members of our student body.

"Sleep is a death; oh, make me try
By sleeping, what it is to die,
And as gently lay my head
On my grave, as now my bed."

Waller

Administration

We are proud to announce our appreciation for another task well done.

Thanks to our staff for patience and untiring efforts to make this a piece of art.

The students of Washington School are to be congratulated also. God made us all in his own image; endowed us with a brain to cultivate and and make of ourselves worthwhile citizens.

As we scan the pages of our past years'

books, we are amazed to note the program we have made in our few years.

May you be mindful of your Alma Mater with her ever watchful eye, noting your success wherever you may be.

"We love every part of our school,
And adore every inch of our ground
Whenever you need us, dear Washington,
We will always be around."

Yearbook Staff

The product of a school is the result of valuing its traditions and its education.

A credit to the student body and administration is often the maintenance and continuity of its traditions. The Yearbook staff serve as a golden repository in its efforts to progress, within the walls of this book readers can determine the nature of its results.

Every student at some time chooses to infinite the past. No greater concern can be excited than the labor allotted to the production of a high school yearbook. Our deepest gratitude is extended to those who made this project possible.
