February Is Busy Month for Dunbar High School 4-Hers

The month of February was crowded with activities for the 4-H Club at Dunbar High School in Washington.

The Heart-Pal Week was initiated with the pulling of names on Feb. 5, and exchanging gifts with a heart pal each day Feb. 8-12. On the last day the heart-pal was revealed and a token was given to the Heart-Pal at the Valentine's party.

The regular 4-H meeting was held Feb. 10. After the business session a program was presented, "The Predicament", a skit, showing the advantage of 4-H work. The cast consisted of Burley Nash, Hilton Pickaree, Wilbert Stevens, Mary Helen Brown, and Edward Cains. Two duets were rendered by Savannah Thomas and Betty Garriette.

A demonstration on "Incorrect and Correct Sitting and Standing Positions" was presented by Betty Garriette and Isabelle Mingo, two girls in Health Improvement.

Project leaders gave reports to the group on the progress members are making in each project area.
