DEDICATION

MRS. LEOLA A. JOHNSON

Because the Staff of the 1963-1964 Badger wishes to recognize and commend Mrs. Leola A. Johnson for service in the field of education, this yearbook is dedicated to her. There will always be a feeling of warmth and gratitude toward Mrs. Johnson because she has been influential in helping to direct the lives of many persons.

All Saints High, we love Thee,
Long may you stand with fame;
Hard work and honesty,
Are not in vain,
Green pines and sloping view
Loyal to Thee we'll be,
For all she holds the same,
Wealth and dignity.

Alma Mater

All Saints, this soul of mine
Is closely bound to Thine -
School banners, Orange and Gray,
Lofty will stay.

--Austin, Pratt, Johnson

SUPERVISOR

MRS. LILLIAN C. NETTLES

I am pleased to congratulate you on the completion of your high school education. The qualities of studiousness, leadership and ambition which you have exhibited certainly give us the feeling that you will be successful in your endeavors.

We are depending on you to live up to all that is noble and good.

PRINCIPAL

FELTON U. SHAMLIN

The publication of the first yearbook - The Budget - is another milestone in the historic achievements of the students at All Saints High. I congratulate the Class of 1964, the Yearbook Staff and all who helped to make this publication possible.

May you continue to expand your education and strive for excellence in all of your many endeavors.
