FOREWORD

The faculty and staff of Pineview High School, in recognition of its responsibility in the development of each boy and girl, dedicates itself to the ever challenging task of providing the necessary instruction, guidance, and inspiration to accomplish this goal.

In recognition of the potential excellence of each individual and worthwhile qualities that he possesses, we strive continuously to cultivate those values, skills, appreciations, and outlooks that will render him a worthwhile member of society.

Aneas was a brave warrior, and the sole survivor of the siege of Troy. He went on to help establish the Roman Empire whose influence is with us even to this day.

Let then the courageous spirit of our mascot, Aneas, continue to influence us all as we enter and leave this place. In the footsteps of my predecessors, Mr. T. L. Jones and Mr. M. A. Knighten, I hope to provide an equally conducive and possibly improved atmosphere that will allow many students to become educationally equipped to make valuable contributions to the progress of mankind.

Be proud of this heritage. Accept it and carry it in the recesses of your heart as you meet the challenges of life. Let it kindle that divine spark which is a part of every soul, that helps us accept all men as brothers. Let it guide you, and may the fruits of your endeavors be lasting intangibles for others to follow.
