EDITOR'S MESSAGE

For twelve years our lives have been centered around school and the gaining of knowledge. At this point being seniors, we will soon be experiencing one of the most memorable occasions of our lives, our graduation. This day will remain in our minds throughout our endeavors in the world.

We have been through many experiences at Bethune, but we will always remember our first day at Bethune. The whole community was new to us. The teachers, the students, and the buildings were new. We were looking for a place to fit into the group. With the guidance of teachers, friends, and family, we have reached this point in our lives. As we grasp for higher goals in life, we will look back at this experience for the rest of our lives.

The 1973 COUGAR has been a challenge, a challenge in the respect that we wish to show you the life and the people at Bethune High School.

A special thank you goes to Miss Julia Ann King, Miss Barbara Carter, and Mrs. Eleanor Devers for their time and effort spent making our yearbook a success.

TYRONE CURRIE

DEDICATION

The personal concern for the welfare of their country and devotion to duty in the service of our Nation, are attributes which qualify some members of the Bethune Family for special honor. Therefore, we dedicate this yearbook to those who fought and died in the Vietnam War.

Although the title of the poem is "Soldier, What Did You See" It is dedicated to all young men of the Bethune Family who have served in the Vietnam War.

SOLDIER, WHAT DID YOU SEE?

What did you see, Soldier? What did you see at war?
I saw such glory and honor as I've never seen before.
I saw men's hearts burned naked in red crucibles of pain.
I saw such godlike courage as I'll never see again.

What did you hear, Soldier? What did you hear at war?
I heard the prayers on lips of men who had never prayed before.
I heard men tell their very souls, confessing each dark stain.
I heard men speak the sacred things they will not speak again.

What did you eat, Soldier? What did you eat at war?
I ate the sour bread of fear, the acrid salt of gore.
My lips were burned with wine of hate, the scalding drink of Cain.
My tongue has known a bitter taste I would not taste again.

What did you think, Soldier? What did you think at war?
I thought, how strange we have not learned from wars that raged before,
Except new ways of killing, new multiples of pain.
Is all the blood that men have shed but blood shed all in vain?

What did you learn, Soldier? What did you learn at war?
I learned that we must learn sometime what was not learned before,
That victories won on battlefields are victories won in vain
Unless in peace we kill the germs that breed new wars again.

What did you pray, Soldier? What did you pray at war?
I prayed that we might do the thing we have not done before;
That we might mobilize for peace ... not mobilize in vain.
Lest Christ and man be forced to climb stark Calvary again.
