

BIG BLUE MACHINE

HUNDRED & SEVENTY SEVEN
NINETEEN 1977

*This school shall one day be left behind
Along with smiles and
frowns,
And the memory will be the only thing left
To keep us up when we're feeling down.*

*Although the people we see and know
Will see us now and then,*

*The friends that we were close to,
May never be that close again.*

*But
the memory
is forever.*

*Too soon the past becomes stationary
As we seek future
endeavors,
Knowing the moment is only temporary*

The year is 1977,
And all the dedicated Seniors
Are gathered together.
As we look back into the dark past
We have proven and shown
That we're a nice class.
Although we have had
Our ups and downs,
Success and togetherness
Have brought us back around.
We are happy to be a part of the Big Blue Machine,
Because there's no school like it
Or it hasn't been seen.
Unity is our motto,
Togetherness is our name
Finding our life's treasures
Is our life's aim.
Facing the future,
Remembering the past
Cherishing our moments
At the Big Blue at last.
We're sorry we're leaving
And also glad,
Because we know
That there's many more treasures
In life to be had.
So goodbye faculty, students,
And all of you.
Because we're gonna miss
THE MIGHTY BIG BLUE!!

Coronation Day was a day full of beauty and splendor on which the very versatile Donna McCalli was crowned homecoming queen. The band from Pantherland . . .

The Marching Juke Box is the pride of McKinley High, and is an important part of almost every activity at the Big Blue Machine. The McKinley Band performed at home games, and some away, but when they perform, they really get down!! The band is under the direction of John S. Cage, with Fred Thompson as band major, and Rhonda Robinson as band majorette.

March on Panthers. March on!!!

Majorettes boogie

The school year for the McKinley High majorettes began in April of last year with majorette try-outs. The girls are required to have at least a 2.5 grade average and a good behavior record. Majorettes were selected on the basis of marching, dancing and baton twirling skills; many girls tried out for the squad, but only eleven were selected. These eleven, under the direction of Mrs. Doris Hardnett, have done an exceptional job in boosting the Panther spirit.

During the year they attended a gymnastic clinic and cheer clinic where they were awarded a trophy for most school spirit. There were also a number of pep rallies organized by this really spirited and super squad.

Service Through Singing

Choir is one of the course offerings here at McKinley and is considered as both an extra-curricular as well as a co-curricular subject. The choir schedule includes participation in school and community projects as well as participation in Music Festivals, in and out of the state. Students are able to execute the techniques of correct vocal production through the many and varied performances selected by the choir director. It has traditionally maintained a high level of performance throughout the 63 years of the school's existence. Associated with the choir is The Future Music Leaders of America, a statewide organization which was organized for the purpose of sponsoring a variety of music programs in the school.

Memories Are Forever.

Memories are one of the things we live by, and this year the yearbook staff is focusing on just that, memories. This year we feel that somehow and somehow the memories will again come, of the bad and the good and make us laugh or cry again. This yearbook will allow you, the student body and faculty, to remember the past feelings of when you were once a very important part of McKinley Senior High.

ATHLETICS

Seventy Seven

Rebuilding, but Proud.

The McKinley High '76 football team played to the best of their ability, even through a rebuilding stage. Despite the youngness of the team, they displayed some fine qualities and potential. The returning members of the team, through hard work, perseverance, and determination, promise to display the true winning spirit that has become part of McKinley's heritage in the upcoming season.

"Play Some D"

When the name McKinley is mentioned, anywhere in the state, the first thought has to center around basketball. Traditionally, McKinley has had winning basketball teams, but this year is different. The district (6-AAAA) always has a lot of promising talent out to capture the crown the Panthers have worn for so long. But under the instruction of McKinley's basketball mentor, Coach Roosevelt Brown, and his assistants, the talented round-ballers of the southside will always preserve the meaning of the old adage "We're gonna play some 'D'."

This year's baseball team, as years before, was an interesting team to watch. We were a young team, especially in the area of pitching. The key to our young pitching staff was to gain home experience and confidence prior to our first district game. Returning players from last year's team were Eric Jackson, Gregory Johnson, Ethan Martin, Joseph Solete, Kevin Minor, Willie Wilson, and Russell Robinson. Newcomers to the Panther team this year were Richard Rogers, Alton Whiten and Lyle Morgan.

A First at McK.

This year girl's athletics was introduced to McKinley High in the form of volleyball, basketball, and track and field. The girls did exceptionally well for a young team and a first year team. They gained the knowledge, skill and experience that is necessary for the making of a good team. It was discovered that McKinley has some good girl athletes who will be very productive in year to come. Next year hopes to be a promising one for the McKinley girls. The first step toward success has been taken this year, and next year the steps toward more progress and success will continue and bring the dedicated girl athletes a successful and winning year.
